

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Nazifa Zabeen SIDDIQUA

Research Areas

- Neighborhood sustainability assessment
- Sustainable urbanism in city planning and design
- Climate change adaptation in dense urban settings
- Environmental impact assessment

Academic Qualification

- M.Sc. in Environmental Management, National University of Singapore (2015)
- Bachelor of Architecture, Bangladesh University of Engineering & Technology (2011)

Career History

- Researcher, Centre for Sustainable Asian Cities (CSAC), National University of Singapore (2015-present)
- Faculty, Department of Architecture, American International University- Bangladesh (2011-2014)
- Partner & Architect, Folklore Architects, Bangladesh (2011-present)
- Intern Architect, Indigenous Consultant Ltd, Bangladesh (2009)
- Volunteer, Community Development Centre (CODEC), Bangladesh (2009-2010)

Awards/Honors

- Asian Development Bank (ADB) Full Scholarship for M.Sc. in National University of Singapore. (2014-2015)
- University Merit Scholarship for academic excellence in B.Arch. Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology. (2005-2011)
- Full Bright Scholarship [Bangladesh Government] for excellent result in H.S.C. National Education Board, Bangladesh. (2005-2011)
- Full Bright Scholarship [Bangladesh Government] for excellent result in S.S.C. National Education Board, Bangladesh. (2002-2004)
- Honorable Mention, Best Portfolio category; BERGER award for excellence in architecture, Bangladesh. (2010)
- 3rd prize; 11th BERGER young painters' national art competition, Bangladesh (2006)

Academic Research/Project

- M. Arch dissertation
Sustainable Urbanism at neighborhood level: Possibilities and practice in planned residential areas of Dhaka.
- B. Arch final project
Promoting tourism for community development: Fishermen's village Beach Resort
[based on the coastal areas of the Bay of Bengal, Chittagong, Bangladesh]

Updated: 10th February, 2016